

BEHOLD THE SHIP IS SAFELY MOORD,

a favorite Ballad

Composed by Pleyel.

London Printed for G. Goulding, N^o. 6. James Street, Covent Garden.

SONNET V -

Vivace

Be - - hold the Ship is safe - - ly moord, And nought but joy is heard on board The clinking Can goes round The clink - ing Can goes round The Sea bleach'd sail they brisk-ly hand And shake their Hats to those on land While merry merry Bells ring round While merry merry Bells ring round While merry merry Bells ring round.

2

As on the Topmast William hies
 And there his signal Ribbon ties
 The laughs below abound,
 And now his Mary on the Strand
 In gladness waves her lilly Hand
 While merry Bells ring round

3

The Sails are furld and for the shore
 Each Seaman pulls the plaint Oar
 And leaps on native ground
 William and Mary once more meet
 With rapturous Extacy to greet
 While merry Bells ring round.
