Triplicane, Madras.

Sir,

I am most indebted to you for your valuable suggestions which you gave for the Tamil Music Conference in August, 1941. Every one in the Conference was full of appreciation and considered your letter as the basis on which discussions will centre and work should be done in the years to come. The Rajah Sahib of Chettinad also noticed your article in the Ananda Vikatan re: Papanasa Mudaliar's compositions.

May I now request you to help me to a loan of all the collections that you might have made of rare songs, if that will not inconvenience you? Having known your labours for Tamil and Tamil Music, and your ardour to see proper standards being set up in the matter of Tamil Music, I make bold to make this request. If it will be possible for you to ~~give~~ help me, I shall feel highly indebted to you. The University will thereby be enabled to do a little part of ~~its~~ this great work of Tamil and Music. May I therefore solicit the favour of your granting my request at your earliest convenience?

With respectful regards,

Yours sincerely,

V. Swaminathan
